ENGAGEMENT DINNER

Each year, The Islands Of The Bahamas play a key role in the nuptials of thousands of couples from the world over, providing the dream setting for their most cherished moment in time.

Getting to The Bahamas is easy. Our nation of 700 islands encompassing sixteen unique island destinations lie just 50 miles southeast of Florida, and are connected by scheduled, non-stop air service from the major cities of the United States, Canada and Europe.

Couples seeking a location to say “I do” choose The Islands Of The Bahamas for many reasons. Chief among those reasons is our geography. Surrounded by seas, beaches and landscapes of breathtaking beauty, couples have the option of, not one or two islands, but a bevy of sixteen unique island destinations that each offer a distinctly different vacation experience. Couples may choose to marry on one island and spend their honeymoon on another or even share their time between two islands.

Now is an opportune time to introduce to you the famous sixteen island destinations that comprise The Bahamas. You’re probably already acquainted with world renowned Nassau and...
Paradise Island or maybe Freeport. The other island gems go by names like Exuma, Eleuthera, Harbour Island, Andros, Bimini, The Berry Islands, San Salvador, Cat Island, Long Island, Acklins & Crooked Island, Mayaguana, Inagua and Ragged Island.

Brides-to-be select The Islands Of The Bahamas as their wedding destination because of how easy it is to execute the nuptials of their dreams. The marriage formalities are minimal; the choice of wedding settings endless and the array of wedding services available, from a registry of certified wedding planners to photographers and florists facilitate seamless planning of the big day, whether it is an intimate affair or a grand ceremony.

To those couples with wedding plans on your mind, I invite you to consider saying your vows here in our islands, where the people are warm and friendly and everything is in place to make your wedding a dream come true.

Warm Regards

Hon. Dionisio D’Aguilar, MP

Q. What's the best advice you have for brides looking for a local hairstylist?
A. When looking for local talent, do your research. Ask your event planner for recommendations or Google hairstylist/makeup artists in the area and reach out for photos of previous work they've done. Definitely email photos of your desired hairstyle to the artist of your choice. I suggest booking at least 3 months before your wedding date to liaise back and forth with the artists via email/video calling so that everything goes smoothly.

PATACIA RHODRIGUEZ
Beauty Contributor & Makeup Artist

Professional makeup artist and beauty consultant, based in Nassau, New Providence.

Q. What’s your number one tip for destination wedding brides?
A. Stay away from products described as “illuminating” or “dewy” as it will only accentuate shine throughout the day. Ask your makeup artist for a matte or semi-matte finish. A matte finish in a humid climate will give you the most radiant and glowy finish as the day progresses. You’ll find that you will require fewer touch-ups and you won’t have to worry about your makeup melting away. To beat any unwanted shine, keep a powder puff with blotting powder nearby and finish the night flawlessly!

PHYLICIA ELLIS
Owner & Fashion Designer
@ Phylicia Ellis Bridal

Q. What’s your best gown advice for destination wedding brides?
A. Make sure you’re in love with your gown and not “settling” for a simple look just because it’s a destination wedding. Make necessary arrangements at your destination to ensure that the vision of your day is fully executed and that your dress looks the same as you’ve always dreamed it would.

Q. What advice do you have for newlywed couples?
A. Communication is key in any successful relationship. The ability to have a ‘safe’ space where both individuals can discuss all matters pertaining to a healthy relationship is very important - this can lead to a firm foundation for Trust which is critical to the union’s longevity and also putting God in the center of all of your endeavours.

There’s nothing more uniquely Bahamian than Junkanoo.

What originated as a small celebration of African descendants has evolved into a grand holiday tradition celebrated every Christmas and Boxing Day. The sound of the goatskin drums warmed by a fire, the expert craft and artistry of every hand made, ornate costume, the music felt deep down in the soul - Junkanoo is the lifeblood of The Bahamas. Add local flair to your wedding day and treat your guests to a true cultural experience with an authentic Junkanoo rush-out at your reception. Ask your local wedding planner about adding a small Junkanoo group performance to your wedding day!

Bonefishing

ANDROS

You know the saying, “The couple that fishes together, knows Andros is The Bonefishing Capital of The World!” Enjoy a memorable experience fishing the island’s many mangroves and flats with a local angler as your guide.

Private Charter

THE EXUMAS

365 cays stretched across miles of waters so crystal clear, they can be seen from space. What better way to traverse The Exuma cays than aboard a boat navigated by an expert of Exuma’s waters. Stand barefoot in the middle of the sea with the love of your life on a sand bar exposed only by the receding tide. Visit one of the many uninhabited cays and lounge on beaches untouched. Stop for lunch at the world-famous Chat N’ Chill before hitting the open seas again. You’re the captain of your own adventure with a private charter!
Sail Away
BERRY ISLANDS

Have you ever dreamed of running away? Leaving the hustle of your everyday life and running away with the love of your life to exotic locales and worlds unknown? Nothing will get you closer to that experience than sailing around The Berry Islands. Stable weather and easy-to-navigate waters are what make the islands a mariner’s paradise.

BYOB, rent or trust your journey to one of the many notable charters and captains who maneuver the islands daily. There is no journey too big or small with 700 islands and cays at your ship’s wheel. Start at the northernmost island, Little Stirrup Cay, and take part in the offerings of every cay, all the way down to Chubb Cay. Charter a boat from the main Great Harbour Cay and visit another cay with a private picnic for two for the day. Dock off a sandbar and spend quality time alone in the middle of crystal blues. The waters are open and the possibilities are endless.

Surfer’s Beach
GREGORY TOWN, ELEUTHERA

A little known secret about the island of Eleuthera is that there is a beach two miles south of Gregory Town where the surf is always up. Any adventurous couple willing to wander the path will find surfing done Bahamian style. Winds from the southwest blow breaks from the Atlantic Ocean that surfers have compared to the waves in Hawaii. Walk the walk with local surf legends like Surfer Pete, owner of the island’s only surf shop, who are as generous with their knowledge of the large waves as they are with their surfboards.

Tandem Wreck Diving
NEW PROVIDENCE

Open yourselves up to a whole new world of blues with a wreck dive for two. New Providence is surrounded by many wrecks for divers of all experience levels. Try a sunlit shallow wreck, a moderate depth dive of a wreck seen in several famous Hollywood movies or a more challenging deepwater dive bejeweled with sea life.
Snorkel
THE BAHAMAS

When it comes to snorkeling, the waters of The Bahamas are incomparable. What would you like to see first? Colorful coral growing off a wreck in New Providence? Glittering fish scurrying around the world’s 3rd largest reef — Andros Barrier Reef? Are you bold enough to snorkel the deep blue of Dean’s Blue Hole? Two pairs of snorkelers, two pairs of fins and one joint sense of adventure are all you need.

Seaplane Adventure
BIMINI

Charter a flight to see The Bahamas unplanned — no itineraries, no schedules — just a flight path to the destinations you want to see. Of course, there is also the beauty of seeing the blues of The Bahamas from the sky — a truly breathtaking experience.

ZEMI & IAN

NATURE CHIC

Gregory Town, Eleuthera

70 from the islands of the bahamas with love xo
Zemi and Ian’s spiritual connection to the natural beauty of Eleuthera led them to do an increasingly popular after-wedding photo shoot on the island. The couple chose The Queen’s Bath Pools, natural tidal pools just south of The Glass Window Bridge, as the flawless backdrop to complement their deep love for each other.

ELEUTHERA TRAVEL TIP
Save yourself the stress and source decor from local resources. Eleuthera is a stunning island with naturally beautiful backdrops — no need to bring heavy suitcases of decor items.
Zemi and Ian share a spiritual love for each other and with the beautiful island of Eleuthera. From the moment they got engaged, they knew they wanted an outdoor wedding surrounded by Eleuthera’s natural beauty. Married on a private estate shrouded by palm trees with their family and friends, their semi-angelic themed wedding was a nature lover’s dream. Once their guests watched the sunset on the edge of the beach named for Zemi’s beloved mom, Deanna, they were treated to succulent surf + turf fare and dancing late into the night. After the big day, Zemi and Ian’s spiritual connection to Eleuthera led them to do an increasingly popular after-wedding photoshoot around the island and the stunning photos speak volumes!

“ELEUTHERA IS SO SPECIAL TO OUR FAMILY THAT NO MATTER WHAT IT TOOK, WE HAD TO HAVE OUR WEDDING THERE ON OUR BEACH — DEANNA’S BEACH.”

Natural Beauty: Zemi went for a polished natural look to enhance her natural beauty.
The couple is the first and only to wed on this private beach named after Zemi's beloved mother, Deanna.

ELEUTHERA
From Greek origin, means "freedom"
LOOKING UP TO SEE A RAINBOW BEAUTIFULLY APPEAR DURING OUR VOWS AND FOR OUR FIRST KISS CONFIRMED THIS WAS A COVENANT LOVE!”

Zemi’s after-wedding dress was inspired by angels and she nicknamed all of her bridesmaids Zemi’s Angels.

JESSICA & WAYNE

SUN-KISSED

Sandals Emerald Bay, Exuma

from the islands of the bahamas with love xo
Along a mile-long, powdery-sand beach in Farmer’s Hill, Exuma sits Sandals Emerald Bay Luxury Resort & Spa. Described as a “grand estate”, the resort features presidential beachfront villas and charming bay house rooms. Brides will love the Reflecting Pool Garden wedding location. Grooms will love the picturesque, 18-hole golf course overlooking Exuma’s emerald shores.

EXUMA TRAVEL TIP
Afraid of missing your connection? While some international airlines fly direct to Exuma, Bahamasair flies to Exuma twice daily.
From their first date at Starbucks to exchanging vows at Emerald Bay

Jessica and Wayne were meant to be. After getting engaged, the couple knew that they wanted a destination wedding in The Bahamas before they even visited. One trip to Exuma was enough to seal the deal for the travel lovers. Inspired by the beauty of a conch shell, Jessica settled on hues of blush, pastel pinks and nudes for their casually-elegant, tropical wedding. On a breezy February afternoon, down a sandy aisle lined with conch shells, Jessica walked towards her Wayne. The two shared their vows and their first kiss as man and wife under an arch draped in billowing blush, surrounded by lanterns overstuffed with soft pink dendrobium orchids. As nighttime fell, the newlyweds were surprised with a Junkanoo rush out — a true island send-off for the new Mr. and Mrs!

“BEFORE WE EVEN ARRIVED IN THE BAHAMAS, WE KNEW EXUMA WAS THE SPOT WHERE WE WANTED TO START FOREVER.”

Jessica’s whimsical gown married beach vibes with sultry elegance.

INDIA IN PARADISE

Paradise Island, New Providence
Known also as “Mehndi”, Henna is one of the most easily recognized Indian-wedding traditions. Although Henna is a centuries-old practice, the many different intricate designs and placements represent a range of sentiments from devotion and vitality to beauty and love.

HELP YOUR WEDDING PLANNER
Planning a cultural wedding in The Bahamas? Consult with a local wedding planner at least 8-10 months in advance with any special requests to allow your planner enough time to source everything needed.

South Asian weddings are well known as some of the most beautiful, meaningful and lavish cultural weddings worldwide.

For Sruti and Kartik, there was no better place to hold their auspicious event than the ritzy shores of Paradise Island, The Bahamas. Marrying two distinct cultures into one incredible weekend, their unbelievably beautiful Indian destination wedding was one to remember. No two Indian weddings are exactly alike, with different cultures and families on the continent. Sruti and Kartik sought the expertise of local wedding planners to help make their unique wedding vision a reality. Typically, Indian weddings are a huge affair with tons of friends, families and colleagues attending to wish the couple well. The true beauty of having a cultural destination wedding is sharing the excitement of a new locale with your favorite people.

DID YOU KNOW?

Indian weddings typically take place over 3 days! The most recognizable part of the 3-day celebration is the Hindu ceremony, which happens on the last day, and is followed by a grand wedding reception.

Like many Indian brides, Sruti donned a second look for the reception—a stunning sari in a traditional bridal white.

The “Haldi” ceremony is a cleansing and blessing ceremony for the couple.
TIPS TO PLANNING A CULTURAL DESTINATION WEDDING IN THE BAHAMAS

• Connect with a local wedding planner at least 10 months ahead of your wedding date.
• Keep a list of all the important cultural events/moments that should happen during your ceremony and what elements would be needed for each. This gives your planner time to source everything you need.
• Set your RSVP date for at least 3-4 months ahead of your travel date to ensure you and your planner have a proper head count on confirmed traveling guests.
• Leave sourcing any special elements for your planner to find locally. Travel restrictions can make flying with special items very difficult.
• Don’t be afraid to step a little outside of your cultural wedding traditions. The Bahamas has a ton of local celebratory traditions that would be a wonderful and authentic addition to any cultural wedding. Just imagine a colorful Junkanoo procession introducing the bride and groom at an Indian wedding!
Let’s run away, darling, you and I. The big day is done. Now it’s time to luxuriate in pure paradise!

Steal away with us to the historic Graycliff Hotel, a true romantic hidden gem set along picturesque West Hill Street, reminiscent of Olde Nassau.

Graycliff.com
#HoneymoonGoal: Spend your first days as husband and wife lounging around the pool or indulging in a Graycliff experience crafted personally for you, including cigar rolling, The Chocolatier or the acclaimed Heritage Village plus much more!
As the evening blooms, Nassau’s first 5-star restaurant becomes awash in candlelight and delectable smells lure you from your love nest. Feeling less formal? Try a laid back yet festive night at The Piazza, Humidor Churrascaria, Giotto Pizzeria and Beer Garden.

HONEYMOON TIP

Plan to unwind! It’s tempting to want to try as many experiences as you can. Allow yourselves a few days to just ebb and flow and connect as newlyweds with no planned itinerary. Your post-honeymoon glow will thank you for it!
There are many milestones in life worth celebrating, but none more important than love. Whether you’re giving yourselves the wedding you were unable to have or rekindling that first flame from your first kiss as newlyweds, “We Do” should be even sweeter the second time around. Say ta-ta to traditional and prepare to be inspired by this nautical-themed, sunset vow renewal. Set aboard a sailboat in New Providence, picture yourself with your first mate in this sea-styled ceremony and cocktail reception. All aboard!

This stunning mix of different hues gives this bouquet a beautiful boost.

For sea-loving couples, your dreams of a wedding at sea are closer to reality on a private catamarán from Sēa Senor Charters. (seasenorcharters.com)

BAR & GRILL: Is there a more perfect spot for a seafaring wedding cocktail than at an overwater bar and grill with 360 views of The Atlantic? We can't think of one!

CHAMPAGNE: Some things should never change — bubbly to celebrate the newlyweds. Cheers to many more years!

THE CAKE: A 2-tier navy blue and white cake accented with gold fondant ropes, a gold anchor topper, buttercream and flecks of 24K gold leaf. Exquisite!

Keeping it light: Crab salad shots and tostadas with fresh seafood seem appropriate for light celebratory fare served aboard a sailboat.
Ditch the gown, keep the glam.
