Frequently Asked Questions

Who may enter?

Students must be between the ages of 13 to 18 years old to enter the contest. In line with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA), your submission through our website indicates confirmation that you are at least 13 years old and have received parental consent to enter the contest. Each student may submit one submission only.

Is there a submission or entry fee?

No.

Are there prizes?

Among all of the submissions, 10 finalists will be selected to have their artwork showcased at the event. The artwork for first, second and third-place winners will also be indicated at the event. All finalists will also receive certificates as well as additional prizes and giveaways.

What is the correct size for submitting your artwork?

Your original art may be any size and medium; however, you must create or scan and submit it as a high-resolution (minimum 300 dpi) digital file (JPG, JPEG, PDF or PNG). Your digital art must measure no less than 12.8" (325.12 mm) wide by 8.8" (223.52 mm) high, or if larger, it must contain the same proportions with a horizontal orientation.

Will I be credited for my work?

Yes, you will receive full credit for your artwork.

Do I own the rights to my art?

Yes, you own the rights to your art. However, by your submission, you acknowledge: (1) your submission is an original concept and execution and is not a copy or reproduction of the art of another; and (2) you will agree to irrevocably grant to The Bahamas Ministry of Tourism, Investments & Aviation and its related organizations in its sole and absolute discretion, without restriction or limitation, a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free, perpetual, irrevocable license (with the right to sublicense) to use, publish, modify, adapt, translate, create derivative works, distribute and display your work and personal information, including your name, age and island/country of residence, for exhibits, displays, catalogues, posters, advertising, educational, merchandising/promotional materials and other purposes throughout the world via any media now known or hereinafter devised. If your artwork is selected for display, you agree to execute additional documentation to effectuate this grant.
